View from The Samfund office in Boston, MA.
Dear Samfund supporters,

This past year has been full of excitement and growth for The Samfund. With two grant cycles in place, we are proud to announce we have now awarded a total of $1.6 million to young adults as of June 2016. The Samfund family continues to grow every day with new volunteers and grant recipients. We have welcomed new Board and Advisory Council members, published our first academic article, and hosted our first Sambassador retreat in Chicago this past April. Attending this retreat was incredibly meaningful for me. I had the privilege of leading sessions on leadership and storytelling, and watching our Sambassadors grow and connect during the weekend was truly inspirational. Please take a moment to read our FY 2016 Annual Report to learn more about what this past year has meant for The Samfund, and why we are so grateful for your continued support.

The Samfund provides support to young adults who are struggling financially because of cancer. Our hope for the future is that all young adults, regardless of cancer, will be able to achieve their goals.
Dear friends of The Samfund,

One of the highlights of the past year was publishing our first academic article in Cancer Medicine. In it, we shared insight into the unique financial challenges that young adults face because of cancer: obtaining affordable health insurance for the first time, stacks of medical bills with nothing left in savings to pay them, and a high rate of unemployment. As a matter of fact, one of the most striking things we found was that our grant recipients have an average net worth of -$35,000, compared to $68,000 for their peers (using US Census data for comparison). That’s a $100,000 difference.

This article gave us a voice. It provided visibility within the medical community and opened up new opportunities for collaboration. It established us as a leader in this space. Most importantly, it energized us to find creative ways to support young adults, during and after their cancer treatment, so that recovering financially doesn’t become a lifelong struggle.

Going forward, we are positioned to make a greater impact than ever before. I am so proud to share this Annual Report with you because you are the ones who make these milestones and accomplishments possible. Thank you so much for all of your support -- past, present, and future.

Grants

The Samfund is proud to have awarded over $252K during this fiscal year to deserving young adult cancer survivors, bringing our total grants awarded to over $1.6 million. We are thrilled to announce that for the first time, we now offer two grant cycles -- one in the summer and one in the winter.

“The financial help that I received from The Samfund really helped to propel my dreams forward, even though my life was halted and slowed at times due to the after effects of cancer.”
-Jacquae, Samfund Grant Recipient

Regional Breakdown

Fertility issues are common for many in the young adult cancer population. Starting a family through any process other than the traditional way can be prohibitively expensive, and many cancer survivors lose hope that they’ll be able to become parents as a result. Since our first grants in 2005, we’ve awarded over $86,000 towards family building and helped young adult cancer survivors become parents through adoption, IVF, IUI, embryo transfer, surrogacy or sperm/oocyte/embryo storage. We have a special place in our hearts for the birth announcements and letters we receive from those who have welcomed babies and children into their families with help from a Samfund grant. Here are two of our most recent additions, below.

THANK YOU to our 33 volunteer grant reviewers in FY16! You helped make all of this possible!

Samfund Family Additions

Brandon F. and family
Laura G. and family
"The Samfund grant that I received was one of the greatest blessings I have ever had. The grant was put towards my car payment, which in turn, gave me the opportunity to help support my family more since my father lost his job. It's an incredible, empowering feeling to be able to support the people that loved and cared for me throughout my diagnosis and treatment. I am forever grateful to The Samfund for helping me to move forward!"

Christina S.

"One would hope to only worry about fighting and getting better. Unfortunately, the first thing that comes to mind when you're diagnosed is 'How am I going to live, stay in my house and pay my bills?' The grant came exactly at the right time and relieved a mountain of stress from my shoulders. On top of having minimal resources I also am a single father. The Samfund allowed me to focus on my health and relax a little while on disability and enjoy the time that I have with my daughter. I am extremely thankful."

Guy K.

"Cancer wasn’t easy on my finances, which is where The Samfund came in. I was awarded a grant for rent assistance so that I didn’t have to worry about making rent for 3 months...The Samfund’s tagline is #cancerisntfree, and this is so true. Overcoming the financial repercussions of a cancer diagnosis for young adults isn’t easy, but with The Samfund’s help, I've been able to begin to move forward with my life."

NEW ADDITIONS

This year we have been lucky enough to welcome new members to our Board of Trustees and Advisory Council. Join us in welcoming Lex Friedman, Carolyn Jasinski, Patricia Graca, and Doug Woodward. We are so lucky to have them!

Board of Trustees

Lex Friedman
Lex is the EVP of Sales and Development for Midroll Media, the world’s largest podcasting company. Previously, Lex worked as a product director at Intermix (acquired by News Corp), co-founded a diet tracking startup called The Daily Plate (acquired by Demand Media), and worked as the senior director of product at Demand (which IPO’d). Lex also worked as a senior writer at Macworld, and is the author of four books. He is a longtime supporter of The Samfund. He’s a donor, built a custom application system that the organization used for several years, and an occasional provider of tech support, too. He was named The Samfund’s Volunteer of the Decade in 2014.

Carolyn Jasinski
Carolyn has been a champion for The Samfund since 2010 when she jumped into service as a grant reviewer, fundraising “consultant” and Team Samfund member. Carolyn is Director of Leadership Relations at Northeastern University in Boston. In addition to supporting The Samfund, Carolyn currently mentors for the T.E.A.M. program, serves on Emerson College’s alumni board, and has led a Global Village Habitat for Humanity build team in Zambia. Carolyn is inspired by The Samfund family and committed to offering support and fundraising on its behalf.

Advisory Council

Patricia Graca
Whole and Simple, Creator and Founder
Patricia recently created and founded an affiliate marketing business, after working at Hewlett-Packard for over 22 years, leading eCommerce, CRM and social media teams. She became involved with The Samfund through a volunteering project for a website audit. Her work helped inform our newly redesigned website. Patricia advises The Samfund on Digital Customer Experience.

Doug Woodward
DW Advertising, Creator and Founder
Doug shoulders the business and management roles at DW by bringing laser focus to project planning and priorities. He’s also an award-winning creative with a combination of agency and corporate experience, serving small businesses to Fortune 100 companies. From helping The Samfund in its marketing and communication efforts to refreshing The Samfund logo and identity, Doug and his team are committed to the cause—and proud to be part of The Samfund team.
This year we published our first peer-reviewed article in Cancer Medicine, found here. We knew we had a unique story to tell, and decided to analyze our data to offer a new perspective to the conversation. Our larger goal is to draw attention to the unique financial struggles YAs face due to their age and stage of life and we are now positioned to make an even bigger impact.

The Samfund has become a contributor to AJMC.com, writing articles on topics including collaboration and internet crowdfunding. For each 1,000 page views, AJMC donates $100 to The Samfund. Help us increase those numbers by reading the articles found here!

Critical Mass

In November, we traveled to Chicago for the annual Critical Mass conference: a meeting of the minds in the Adolescent and Young Adult (AYA) cancer world. Sam was on this year’s planning committee and presented with Nick Yeager, a pediatric Hematologist-Oncologist at Nationwide Children’s Hospital. Their presentation “Tackling the Elephants Together,” focused on collaboration, and why those of us in the AYA community aren’t doing it nearly as often as we should.

Roswell Park’s Young Adult Wellness Retreat

To kick off National Young Adult Cancer Awareness Week in April, Sam traveled to Buffalo, NY to present the keynote address at Roswell Park Cancer Institute’s annual Wellness Retreat.

ASCO Annual Meeting

Sam and Michelle attended this year’s ASCO (American Society of Clinical Oncology) Annual Meeting with a patient advocate booth and shared The Samfund’s work with over 38,000 other attendees.
This April, we welcomed 25 Sambassadors to Chicago for our first-ever retreat. As a Boston-based organization with volunteers spread out across the country, our goal was to make everyone feel connected to one another and to a greater effort. Well, we hardly had to do anything - our Sambassadors connected instantly! In addition to sessions led by our Board Chair, Steve Bandrowczak, Jonny Imerman, of Imerman Angels, led a workshop on advocacy. The events of the weekend opened a new chapter in our Samfund journey. We all left Chicago with enormous energy and passion for our mission, a stronger sense of connectedness and community, and a renewed sense of purpose. The future of The Samfund is bright with these amazing volunteers at the helm!
Our August fundraiser at The Magic Castle, the exclusive Academy of Magical Arts located in Los Angeles, CA, was one of our most successful fundraisers to date. We had 135 guests in attendance thanks to our team of Samfund alumni and volunteers who put this event together.

Thank you to our wonderful Bay Area Samfund alumni and volunteers for putting together our Paint with a Purpose fundraiser! Thank you to Create, Mix and Mingle in San Mateo for being wonderful hosts and for all the local businesses who participated in our raffle!

This year we were the charity recipient at Starwood Hotel & Resorts Annual Golf Tournament in Kingston, MA. Starwood employees enjoyed the sunshine and generously donated to The Samfund. Samfund CEO Sam Watson and Alumni Leadership Council member Erin McCabe were invited to speak at the reception.
Casino Night was one of our favorite events of the year. Guests played blackjack, roulette, and craps, and raised money for young adult survivors. We look forward to making this an annual event. A big thank you to Casino Party Planners and our wonderful event committee for making the night one to remember.

Our 12th Annual NYC Comedy Night was the perfect way to close out the fiscal year. On June 29th, 200 of our most loyal supporters gathered at Broadway Comedy Club. This year’s headliner was Quincy Jones, a young adult undergoing cancer treatment himself, who starred in his own HBO special “Burning the Light” this past June. Jones and the other comedians helped show that sometimes laughter really is the best medicine.

We hosted our Unmasque Cancer masquerade ball in Los Angeles. Notable guests included Amy Paffrath, host of “Dating Naked,” Keean Johnson of “Nashville,” and Tanisha Belnap of “So You Think You Can Dance.” A big thank you to T Squared Productions for helping us put together such a beautiful evening!
We are thankful for our community and corporate partners who have sponsored events, offered their services free of charge, and supported The Samfund.

THANK YOU!!!

We would never be able to do all that we do if it weren’t for all of you, our dedicated donors, volunteers, and friends. We can’t say thank you enough, but we will keep on trying!

IN MEMORIAM

We'd like to recognize those The Samfund family has lost over the years. Their memories motivate us to work even harder to do what we do.

Rebecca Babcock, Andre Bellis, Jason Brightfield, Brian Hahn, Tara Pietromonaco, Lisa Rapp, Adam Thomas, Rhonda Ulmer, Marcie Williams, Christy Wilson, Tanya Wray, Lauren Wollenberg, Board Member: Jeremy Hill
